

Mahakala form

Form is 44 cm high, made of Zellan (ceramic plaster), painted with high quality acrylic

You can choose which mahakala form example you like the most.

The pattern will be copied. There can always be slight difference to the original.

Time to finish: It can take two-four months to realize project

Price: 1080 Euro (including copper plate to close back of the form after traditional filling) + eventual postage costs

Raw form of mahakala

Examples in colour

