

Mahakala form

Form is 44 cm high, made of Zellan (ceramic plaster), painted with high quality acrylic.

You can choose which mahakala form example you like the most (see next page).

The pattern will be copied. There can always be slight difference to the original.

Realization time: It is to establish, mostly it takes two till four months to finish one project.

Price: 1080 Euro (including copper plate to close back of the form after traditional filling) + eventual postage costs

raw form of mahakala

Examples in colour

Copenhagen

Kossin

Braunschweig